GIST OF THE NEWS.

GLEANED FROM OUR NEIGHBORS AND BOILED DOWN.

H. Weber, Man Who is Said to Have Victimized Many People Here Will Be Brought Back for Trial.

Tribune of Thursday, Dec. 8: H. Weber, who is said to have victimized so many people in this city with worthless checks, and stole a team and buggy, the property of the Iowa Stable company, is about at the end of his rope. He was arrested yesterday morning at Elko, Nev., and there he is now held awaiting orders from Salt Lake.

E. D. Holt returned from Ogden last evening with his team, which he had found at Parker's stables in that city. Weber sought to obtain a loan of $50 on the outfit, and the stable man said the only reason he did not advance the money was that he did not have the sum.

Weber told the stable keeper that he needed the money to make up a deficit caused by dallying with a fore box. Holt says that all the money due him from Weber is for the use of the team for one day, although Weber and he had made a verbal contract for the use of the team at the rate of $12.50 a week.

Now that Weber has been captured the police believe that many of his victims, who have up to date denied that they had listened to his wiles, will come out and assist in his prosecution, and the charges that will be piled up against him will be voluminous, both in character and amount.

Sheriff Lewis left for Elko last evening, and as Weber has agreed to waive the formality of extradition papers, officer and prisoner will arrive here tomorrow.

Reception to Rev. C. G. Paterson.

Springville correspondence Tribune, Dec. 7: Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Paterson, who leave tonight for their new field of labor at San Francisco, were given a farewell reception last evening by the members of the Christian Endeavor society and Presbyterian church.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Falkner.

Springville correspondence Tribune, Dec. 7: Mrs. Sarah Falkner, one of Springville's old residents, died here Monday evening. The funeral services were held this afternoon at the L. D. S. meeting house.

The Watch Man at Spanish Fork.

Spanish Fork correspondence Tribune, Dec. 6: A traveling watch repairer has been stopping at the hotel here for about a week and is now badly wanted, as well as several valuable watches in his care. He suddenly disappeared without settling his hotel bill, and no trace of him has been obtained yet.

REBUILDING TABERNACLE.

Richfield Place of Worship to be Built Again.

Richfield correspondence Herald, Dec. 7: At a meeting of the bishops of the various wards of Sevier stake, held a short time ago, to devise a way of raising means to finish rebuilding the tabernacle, it was shown that considerable funds were yet necessary. No help having been proffered from outside sources, it was decided that the work could be finished only through local effort. The amount necessary, however, was too much for the respective bishops to pledge their wards to raise, and the meeting adjourned to give them an opportunity to interview their people. Another meeting has just been held, and each bishop brought word that his ward would stand its proportion of the expense. No further outside assistance will be solicited, but contributions will be accepted from any source.

Acting upon the decision of the last meeting, the board of directors will immediately contract all the remaining work and the work of completing the structure will be pushed as vigorously as winter weather will permit. It is expected to have the tabernacle finished by next April.

The original cost of the tabernacle was $15,000, but the fire will necessitate the expenditure of $5000 more. The walls remained standing, and no further masonry work will be necessary, other than to smooth the upper edges and tear out the sides of the doors and windows, which were softened so as to chip off. The two front corner towers are being run up again and the massive rafters being placed in position for the main roof. Lumber and other building material is being rushed in, so that the interior work can proceed without interruption this winter.

Knights of Maccabee's Officials.

Springville correspondence Tribune, Dec. 7: Springville tent No. 9 of K. O. T. M. held their semi-annual election of officers at their review last evening and elected the following officers for the ensuing six months: Com.,

T. R. Kelly; Lieut. Com., George S. Deury; R. K., E. N. Jordan; F. K., A. O. Packard; chaplain, James Whitmore; sergeant, A. C. Bird; master-at-arms, C. L. Crandall; first master of guards, A. J. Harward; second master of guards, O. T. Fifield; sentinel, H. M. Dougall, Jr.; picket, S. A. Brinton; trustee, Joseph Bate.

The tent has just received a new regalia for their degree team, which cost them $80.

I. O. O. F. Election.

Election of officers of Provo Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., was held Wednesday evening, resulting as follows: N. G., G. R. Stoney; V. G., C. E. Davis; secretary, E. L. Jones; treasurer, L. J. Milner; trustee, Wm. H. Ray; degree captain, Eph Homer.

Dress Cutting and Fitting.

Our attention is called to the establishment in charge of Mrs. A. A. Asper for instruction in the art of dress-cutting and fitting under the renowned "Standard Square Inch System." By this system the art of dresscutting and fitting is simplified, and after completion of the course of instruction pupils are fully qualified and are given a diploma entitling them to use this famous system. The system is simple and readily learned, and its accuracy is unquestioned. Call on Mrs. Asper, on J street, opposite postoffice, for fuller particulars.*27

AS A SQUIRE LIVES.

That is the Life Mrs. Howard Gould Chooses to Lead.

New York Journal: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould have turned their attention to settling upon plans for a future home.

Mr. Gould was in consultation with real estate agents several hours each day last week. He described to them the manner of homestead he wished to found.

He wants enough acres adjoining the home for a deer park, after the mode of the English homes, and he wants—which means that Mrs. Gould wants, and he concurs—a large orchard. The house must be of stone, and susceptible of many additions and some ornamentation.

According to a friend, Mrs. Gould said last week: "We do not know where our home will be, but we are certain what it will be. It will be in the country, preferably in Long Island or New Jersey. It will be a farm, too. The most beautiful life in the world is the life lived by English women who are the wives of country squires. That is the one I prefer."

"They entertain old friends, who are always welcome to their home. They have a kindly care for the tenants and the servants. They visit the schools and give school feasts. They drive and ride and hunt. An occasional trip to London satisfies their craving for a change of scene. It is a quiet life, but a simple and wholesome one. It will make me supremely happy."

It is said by those who know her best that Howard Gould's bride will never make an effort to enter the charmed circle of New York society. The surprising fact is that she has no desire to enter the circle. As quiet a life as that of Mrs. Navarro, once Mary Anderson, is the one of her choice.
